GATES ARRESTED IN PARIS. Millionaire John W. Gates, of the American Wire Trust, always carries his own amusement with him. His latest freak is to throw franc pieces from the top of the Eiffel Tower in Paris to see the crowds below fight over them. Handful after handful of france thus put into circulation Saturday drew a tremendous crowd to where the shower of wealth was failing.

A gendarme appeared at the place and, looking up to discover whence came the failing coins, was struck a stinging blow in the face by one of With the imprint on his countenance and rage in his eye he took the first elevator and determined to avenge his smitten dignity.

Mr. Gates, who has become accustomed to being arrested for doing good, took the matter much more calmly toan did the policeman, whom he accom; a nied to the office of the Commissary o

The generous Gates said in English that he did not know it was against the law to throw anything smaller that a dollar-a five-franc piece -from the top of the E fiel Tower; This was regarded as jesting with sue law, a serious offence in France.

As 8000 as the Commissary had caught his breath be fixed Mr. Gates $10, which that gentleman had to throw up this time upon the deek. He also listened to a scholding in French and VANDERBILT BOLTS A PEARL.-A dispatch from Paris says: Unlike the far-famed beauty of antiquity, who dissolved pearls and quarfed them from her jewelled cup, William K. Vanderbilt takes his pearls raw. What is more, he pays for them on the spot Mr. Vanderbilt was examining some unmounted precious stones placed be-fore him by a Dutch jeweler's agent who expected a large order, and placed a pearl between his teeth to test it-hardness. Mr. Vanderbilt opened his mouth so suddenly after the test that the pearl flew down his throat. Millionaire and jeweler stared at each other a moment. The first thought of his digestion, the other of the price of the pearl. It is not known which thought the harder, but Mr. Vander-bilt was the first to recover, and he rerevived the other by the magic words "How much?" The price was men-tioned and Mr. Vanderbilt, by count The price was men ing out bills, closed the incident, so far as the jeweler was concerned.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my lit-tle daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she should die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy wa highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daugh-ter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much sugering. Yours truly, Mrs. GEO. F BURDICK, Liberty, R. I. For sale by all druggiste.
